

LAW OF GEORGIA
ON THE LEGAL STATUS OF ALIENS AND STATELESS PERSONS

Section I

General Provisions

Chapter I – General Provisions

Article 1 – Aims, objectives, and scope of the Law

1. Under the rights and freedoms guaranteed by the Constitution of Georgia, as well as universally recognised principles and norms of international law, this Law is intended to:

- a) establish legal guarantees for aliens and stateless persons in Georgia according to universally recognised human rights and freedoms, and in line with state interests;
- b) protect universally recognised rights of aliens and stateless persons irrespective of race, colour, language, gender, religion, political, and other views, nationality, ethnic and social belonging, origin, property status and rank;
- c) promote the development of relations between Georgia and foreign states in economy, culture, education, and science;
- d) strengthen the rights of free movement and free choice of residence, as well as the free choice of activity and profession as guaranteed by the Constitution of Georgia;
- e) strengthen the conformity of Georgian legislation governing the legal status of aliens and of persons having the status of stateless person in Georgia, with universally recognised standards of international law and international agreements of Georgia;
- f) support international cooperation in preventing illegal migration; avoid spontaneous and unorganised migration; ensure the implementation of a targeted migration policy.

2. This Law regulates the legal basis and mechanisms for entry, stay, transit, and departure of aliens into/in/through/from Georgia; defines the rights and obligations of aliens and stateless persons, the types and procedures for expulsion of aliens staying in Georgia, and the scope of competence and responsibility of state institutions involved in the process of expulsion.

3. Article 5(c), Article 10(4), Chapter VI and Article 47 of this Law applies to asylum seekers and persons with international protection, except when the Law of Georgia on International Protection and the 1951 United Nations Convention Relating to the Status of Refugees offer such persons a better legal position. Article 52¹ of this Law shall also apply to asylum seekers.

Section II

Entry, Stay, Transit, and Departure of Aliens into/in/through/from Georgia

Chapter II – General Principles of Entry, Stay, Transit, and Departure of Aliens into/in/through/from Georgia

Article 3 – General principles

The entry, stay, transit, and departure of aliens into/in/through/from Georgia shall be regulated based on the following principles:

- a) reciprocity;
- b) family unity;
- c) non-discrimination;
- d) non-expulsion;
- e) the best interests of children;
- f) crossing the state border of Georgia by an alien shall be regulated by the legislation of Georgia;
- g) government bodies, as provided for by the legislation of Georgia, may apply relevant laws and rules to an alien crossing the state border of Georgia, taking into account the reason and purpose for crossing the border;
- h) only the restrictions under the legislation of Georgia may be applied against an alien crossing the state border of Georgia;
- i) an alien who has been refused a visa or permission to cross the state border of Georgia may appeal such a decision, as provided for by the legislation of Georgia;
- j) an alien may enter Georgia under the legislation of Georgia, in observance of universally recognised principles of international law and international agreements of Georgia;
- k) an alien against whom criminal proceedings are pending for international crimes, terrorism, drug trafficking, or human trafficking may be refused entry into Georgia;
- l) an alien staying in Georgia shall be free to leave Georgia. This right may be restricted only according to law to ensure state and/or public safety necessary to maintain a democratic society to provide healthcare, to prevent crime, or to administer justice;
- m) an alien may be expelled from Georgia only under the legislation of Georgia, in accordance with universally recognised principles of international law;
- n) stateless persons permanently residing in a foreign state are subject to the same legal regime as established for citizens of that foreign state;

Article 4 – Entry into Georgia

1. Unless otherwise provided for by the legislation of Georgia, aliens shall enter and depart from Georgia during the hours established for cross-border movement via border checkpoints if they hold a valid travel document and will obtain a permit to stay in Georgia.
2. If representatives of the armed forces of NATO and representatives of the countries participating in the Partnership for Peace Program enter, depart from, or transit through Georgia on official business in the manner provided for by paragraphs 5 and 6 of this article without a valid travel document, they shall have only the following travel documents:
 - a) an identification certificate issued by the dispatching country specifying their first name, surname, date of birth, position, number (if any), branch of the armed forces and a photograph;
 - b) an individual or collective movement order.
3. Foreign employees of diplomatic missions accredited in Georgia, consular offices, representation offices of international organisations, and other equivalent representations, including citizens of the countries that do not need a visa to enter Georgia, need a visa for the first entry into Georgia to work, unless otherwise provided for by an international agreement of Georgia. During accreditation, they shall stay in Georgia and shall cross the state border on the basis of an accreditation card issued according to procedures defined by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs (MFA) of Georgia.
4. A different regime for entry and stay in Georgia may be provided by the legislation of Georgia.
5. Representatives of the armed forces of NATO and representatives of countries participating in the Partnership for Peace Program do not need a visa for the entry into, departure from, and transit through Georgia when performing official duties related to training and operations associated with NATO and the Partnership for Peace Program.
6. When performing official duties that are not related to training and operations under NATO and the Partnership for Peace Program, in case of entry into, departure from, and transit through Georgia of representatives of the armed forces of NATO and representatives of countries participating in the Partnership for Peace Program, they will enjoy visa-free movement under prior written consent by the Ministry of Defence and the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Georgia.
7. When performing official duties, representatives of the armed forces of NATO and representatives of countries participating in the Partnership for Peace Program may also enjoy the benefits defined in Article 12(3) and Article 20(3) of this Law.
8. An authorised body of the Ministry of Internal Affairs (MIA) of Georgia may, in special cases defined by the Ministry of Internal Affairs, permit an alien to cross the state border of Georgia without a travel document and stay in Georgia for up to three months.
9. In the case provided for by Article 9(2)(f) of the Law of Georgia on International Protection, an alien or a stateless person shall not have the right to legally stay in Georgia for the purposes of this Law.

Law of Georgia No 865 of 26 June 2025 – website, 7.7.2025

Article 5 – Grounds for entry and stay in Georgia

The following shall be the grounds for entry into and stay in Georgia:

- a) a Georgian visa;
- b) a Georgian residence permit;
- c) a temporary residence card of a person with international protection in Georgia;
- d) a temporary identity card;
- e) other cases as provided by the legislation of Georgia.

Chapter III – Georgian Visa

Article 6 – General conditions for granting a Georgian visa

1. A Georgian visa shall be granted by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Georgia, and diplomatic missions and consular offices of Georgia abroad. In exceptional cases defined by an ordinance of the Government of Georgia, a visa may be issued at the Georgian state border.

1¹. The Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Georgia shall issue a Georgian immigration visa to an alien who is lawfully staying in Georgia according to the procedure specified in Article 8 of this Law. For this purpose, an alien shall apply to the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Georgia with an appropriate application not later than 45 days before his/her lawful stay in Georgia expires.

1². The Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Georgia shall issue an electronic visa to an alien staying abroad if an appropriate visa application has been submitted through a special webpage of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Georgia.

2. An alien, in whose country of citizenship Georgia does not have a diplomatic mission or a consular office, may apply for a visa to a nearby diplomatic mission or consular office of Georgia.

2¹. The issuance of a Georgian visa, or the performance of certain activities necessary to issue a Georgian visa to an alien in whose country of citizenship Georgia has no diplomatic mission or consular office may be entrusted to a third country. Conditions for the issuance of a Georgian visa or the performance of certain activities necessary to issue a Georgian visa shall be determined under an appropriate treaty or agreement.

3. An alien who is in a third country may apply for a Georgian visa to the diplomatic mission or the consular office of Georgia in the host country provided he/she has a valid multiple entry and exit visa or a valid residence permit of the host country. If a Georgian visa is granted to an alien of this category, the validity period of the above visa or residence permit of the host country must be three months longer than the validity period of the Georgian visa.

3¹. The Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Georgia has the power to entrust the performance of certain activities necessary to issue a Georgian visa to a commercial agent. Conditions for the commercial agent to perform certain activities necessary to issue a Georgian visa shall be determined under the agreement concluded between the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Georgia and the commercial agent.

4. In exceptional cases, a visa may be issued on the basis of international legal or humanitarian grounds or the state interests of Georgia, in the cases where an alien does not meet the requirements and conditions established for obtaining a visa. In that case a single entry visa with 30-calendar-days validity period shall be issued to the alien, and a temporary residence permit shall be issued after the entry of the alien into Georgia.

5. A single or multiple entry Georgian visa may be issued to an alien, provided he/she meets the requirements and conditions established for receiving a Georgian visa.

6. A single entry short-term visa may be issued in accordance with the number of days indicated in a visa application submitted by an alien, but for not more than 30 days.

7. A multiple entry short-term visa may be issued for a maximum of a five-year validity period. At the same time, the overall duration of an alien's entry and stay in Georgia shall not exceed 90 calendar days in any 180-day period, except for the case determined by paragraph 7¹ of this article. A multiple entry short-term visa shall be issued to an alien who, under the procedure established by the legislation of Georgia, stayed in Georgia at least once during the previous year and there are grounds for him/her to request a multiple entry short-term visa.

7¹. A multiple entry short-term visa may also be issued for a five-year validity period and the right of stay in Georgia for the term of 1 year only in the case of issuance of C5 category ordinary visa.

8. A long-term visa shall be issued with the right of multiple entries and with 90 calendar days or one-year validity period and duration of stay in Georgia. A long-term visa with one-year validity period shall be issued only when a D5 category immigration visa is granted. A long-term visa shall be a precondition for obtaining diplomatic accreditation or a Georgian residence permit, unless otherwise provided for by an ordinance of the Government of Georgia.

[8. A long-term visa shall be issued with the right of multiple entries and with 90 calendar days or one-year validity period and duration of stay in Georgia. A long-term visa with one-year validity period shall be issued when a D5 and D6 category immigration visas are granted. A long-term visa shall be a precondition for obtaining diplomatic accreditation or a Georgian residence permit, unless otherwise provided for by this Law and an ordinance of the Government of Georgia. (Shall become effective from 1 September 2026)]

9. The Government of Georgia shall establish the procedure for issuance, extension, and termination of a Georgian visa. The Government of Georgia has the power to establish the terms and the procedure, different from those provided for under the General Administrative Code of Georgia, for filing and reviewing an administrative complaint regarding the issuance, extension, and termination of the Georgian visa.

10. Georgian visa shall not be issued to aliens who, at the time of filing a visa application, stays in Georgia on the ground of deferred obligation to leave Georgia.

Article 8 – Procedures for obtaining a Georgian visa

1. To obtain a Georgian visa, an alien shall fill out a visa application the form of which is established by a normative act of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Georgia. For the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Georgia to issue an electronic visa, except when a D immigration electronic visa is granted to an alien staying in Georgia on legitimate grounds, an alien fills out a visa application on a special webpage of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Georgia.

1¹. The decision to issue a Georgian immigration visa to an alien staying in Georgia on legitimate grounds is made by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Georgia. The reception of the documentation necessary to issue an immigration visa to an alien staying in Georgia on legitimate grounds, and the placement of a visa in a travel document, or the electronic issuance of a Georgian visa shall be ensured by the Legal Entities under Public Law (LEPL) within the Ministry of Justice of Georgia – LEPL Public Service Hall (the ‘Public Service Hall’) and LEPL Public Service Development Agency (the ‘Agency’), or by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Georgia. The power of the Agency under this paragraph maybe delegated to a municipality under a delegation agreement.

1². In the case provided for in paragraph 1¹ of this article and Article 9(4¹) of this Law, the appropriate state monitoring of exercising the delegated power shall be performed by the Ministry of Justice of Georgia under the procedure established by the Organic law of Georgia Local Self-Government Code.

1³. To define the powers of the authorities under paragraph 1¹ of this article, the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Georgia and the Ministry of Justice of Georgia shall issue a joint order.

2. The circumstances that must be confirmed in order to obtain a Georgian visa, and/or the documents to be attached to a visa application shall be determined by an ordinance of the Government of Georgia.

3. If required, a visa issuing authority may invite a Georgian visa applicant and/or his/her representative for an interview.

4. In the cases provided for by the legislation of Georgia, an alien shall be required to present an invitation.

5. (deleted – No 3602, 8.5.2015).

6. (deleted – No 3602, 8.5.2015).

7. The Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Georgia, diplomatic missions and consular offices of Georgia abroad shall make the decision regarding the issuance of a short-term Georgian visa within 10 calendar days after an appropriate visa application is submitted. A short-term Georgian electronic visa shall be issued no later than 5 working days after a visa application is submitted through a special webpage of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Georgia. The period for making the decision to issue a short-term Georgian visa, except when a short-term Georgian electronic visa is issued on the basis of a visa application submitted through a special webpage of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Georgia, may be extended by 30 calendar days, if further examination of an application is required. The period for making the decision to issue a short-term Georgian visa, except when a short-term Georgian electronic visa is issued on the basis of a visa application submitted through a special webpage of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Georgia, in cases defined by an ordinance of the Government of Georgia, may be shortened to 5 working days or shorter period. The period for issuing a short-term electronic visa on the basis of a visa application submitted through a special webpage of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Georgia may be shortened to less than 5 days in urgent cases defined also by an ordinance of the Government.

8. The Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Georgia, diplomatic missions and consular offices of Georgia abroad shall make the decision to issue a D category (except for D5) long-term Georgian immigration visa within 30 calendar days after an appropriate visa application is submitted. The decision to issue a D5 category immigration visa shall be made within 10 calendar days after an appropriate visa application is submitted.

9. The decision on issuing Georgian visa may be made in an expedited manner in accordance with a legal act of the Government of Georgia.

Article 9 – Extending a Georgian visa

1. An alien staying in Georgia is entitled to request an extension of short-term Georgian diplomatic and special visas, and D3 and D5 category immigration visas if he/she meets conditions for a respective visa issuance. When extending a D5 category immigration visa, an alien shall be exempt from the obligation to submit a reassessment of the market value of the real property.

2. Individuals travelling to Georgia to conduct research at an authorised educational institution in Georgia, and individuals travelling to Georgia for the purpose of studying within the framework of the international programmes shall be entitled to an extension of a D3 category immigration visa if the grounds for the visa extension do not allow for the possibility that these individuals stay in Georgia for more than 3 months.

[1. An alien staying in Georgia is entitled to request an extension of short-term Georgian diplomatic and special visas, and D3, D5 and D6 category immigration visas, provided that he/she meets conditions for the issuance of the respective visa. When extending a D5 category immigration visa, an alien shall be exempt from the obligation to submit a re-evaluation of the market value of the real property.

2. An adult travelling to/staying in Georgia for the purpose of studying or conducting research at, or under the auspices of, an authorised educational institution in Georgia, and individuals travelling to/staying in Georgia for the purpose of studying within the framework of international programmes, shall be entitled to an extension of a D3 category immigration visa, provided that the grounds for the extension of validity period of the said visa do not provide for the possibility of such individuals remaining in Georgia for more than 3 months.

2¹. Minors travelling to/staying in Georgia for the purpose of studying at an authorised higher educational or vocational institution in Georgia, until they reach the age of majority, and individuals travelling to/staying in Georgia for the purpose of studying at an authorised general educational institution in Georgia, until they complete their full general education, shall be entitled to extension of the validity period of a D6 category immigration visa. If the alien travelling to/staying in Georgia for the purpose of studying, who holds a D6 category immigration visa, is a minor, his/her parents/legal representatives and minor siblings shall also be entitled to extension of the validity period of this category of immigration visa until the said alien reaches the age of majority. (Shall become effective from 1 September 2026)

3. The Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Georgia shall make the decision to extend Georgian diplomatic and special visas, and D3 and D5 category immigration visas.

[3. The Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Georgia shall make the decision to extend Georgian diplomatic and special visas, and D3, D5 and D6 category immigration visas. (Shall become effective from 1 September 2026)]

4. The reception of the documentation necessary to extend Georgian diplomatic and special visas shall be ensured by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Georgia.

4¹. The reception of the documentation necessary to extend D3 and D5 category immigration visas shall be ensured by the Public Service Hall and the Agency. The power of the Agency under this paragraph may be delegated to a municipality under a delegation agreement.

4². For an alien, who has submitted a visa application to extend a Georgian visa under paragraph 2 of this article, the period of his/her stay in Georgia during the appropriate administrative procedure shall be deemed excusable, and he/she shall be exempt from the obligation to pay a fine as determined under the legislation of Georgia. The alien may not be expelled from Georgia until the final decision within the frameworks of administrative proceedings on the extension of the Georgian visa is made. Appealing, in accordance with the procedure established by the legislation of Georgia, the decision on refusing the extension of Georgian visa as provided for by this paragraph shall not impede the proceedings on the expulsion of the alien from Georgia by the authorised body of the Ministry of Internal Affairs of Georgia and/or the execution of the decision made regarding the expulsion of the alien from Georgia.

[4¹. The reception of the documentation necessary for extending the D3, D5 and D6 category immigration visas shall be ensured by the Public Service Hall and the Agency. The power of the Agency under this paragraph may be delegated to a municipality under a delegation agreement.]

4². For an alien, who has submitted a visa application to extend Georgian visas under paragraphs 2 and 2¹ of this article, the period of his/her stay in Georgia during the appropriate administrative procedure shall be deemed excusable, and he/she shall be exempt from the obligation to pay a fine as determined under the legislation of Georgia. The alien may not be expelled from Georgia until the final decision within the frameworks of administrative proceedings on the extension of the Georgian visas is made. Appealing, in accordance with the procedure established by the legislation of Georgia, the decision on refusing the extension of Georgian visas as provided for by this paragraph shall not impede the proceedings on the expulsion of the alien from Georgia by the authorised body of the Ministry of Internal Affairs of Georgia and/or the execution of the decision made regarding the expulsion of the alien from Georgia. (Shall become effective from 1 September 2026)

5. Provisions of Chapters II and III of this Law shall be applicable when reviewing the issue of extending a Georgian visa validity period.

Article 11 – Grounds for refusing a Georgian visa or entry into Georgia

1. An alien may be refused a Georgian visa or entry into Georgia:

a) if he/she does not have documents necessary for entering Georgia as provided for by the legislation of Georgia;

b) if he/she has been banned from entering Georgia or has not paid a fine imposed for an unlawful stay in Georgia;

b¹) if he/she has not paid a fine imposed on him/her under the legislation of Georgia;

c) if he/she has submitted incomplete or false data or documents for obtaining a visa or for extending a visa validity period;

d) if he/she does not have health and accident insurance or sufficient funds to reside in Georgia and to return to his/her point of origin;

e) if his/her stay in Georgia poses a threat to the state security and/or public order of Georgia, or to the protection of the health, rights, and legitimate interests of citizens of Georgia and other persons residing in Georgia;

[e) If there are sufficient grounds for assuming that his/her stay in Georgia poses a threat to the state security and/or public order of Georgia, or to the protection of health, rights, and legitimate interests of citizens of Georgia and other persons residing in Georgia; (Shall become effective from 1 September 2026)]

f) if his/her stay in Georgia is unacceptable because of foreign policy considerations;

g) if there is a reasonable doubt that he/she will unlawfully stay in Georgia after the visa validity expires;

h) if he/she does not provide, or provides false information about his/her identity and purpose of travel;

i) in other cases provided for by the legislation of Georgia.

2. An alien shall be refused a visa or entry into Georgia under the procedure established by the legislation of Georgia.

2¹. When a Georgian visa or entry into Georgia is refused on the grounds provided for in paragraphs 1(b), (e) or (f) of this article and in the case provided for by paragraph 3² of this article, there must be a report of an authorised body on the inappropriateness of issuance of the Georgian visa.

3. In the cases provided for in paragraph 1(b), (e), and (f) of this article, as well as paragraph 3² of this article, the report on the inappropriateness of issuance of the Georgian visa or entry into Georgia shall not be substantiated.

3¹. On the grounds provided for in paragraph 1(b), (e), or (f) of this article, as well as in the case provided for by paragraph 3² of this article, a decision made regarding the refusal on issuing Georgian visa shall not be appealed.

3². An alien may be refused a C5 category Georgian visa due to the immigration policy of Georgia. The refusal shall not be appealed.

4. An alien who, as a result of inspection at a border checkpoint, has been refused entry into Georgia shall return to his/her point of origin.

5. In the case provided for in the fourth paragraph of this article if an alien cannot leave a border control zone immediately due to legal or factual reasons, he/she shall be placed temporarily at the border control zone, under observation, in a specifically designated place.

Article 12 – Inspection at a border checkpoint

1. For entry into Georgia an alien shall undergo inspection at a border checkpoint.

2. An authorised body of the Ministry of Internal Affairs of Georgia shall inspect aliens at border checkpoints in accordance with the legislation of Georgia. As a result of the inspection, the authorised body shall:

a) grant consent to enter Georgia;

b) deny entry into Georgia and return him/her to the point of origin.

3. Representatives of the armed forces of NATO member states and of the states participating in the Partnership for Peace Programme shall be exempt from inspection at border checkpoints at entry into, transit through, and exit from Georgia while performing their official duties, according to the procedures provided for by Article 4 (5) and (6) of this Law.

Article 13 – Obligations of carrier companies

1. A carrier company shall be obliged to:

a) check an alien's documents to ascertain whether he/she has a valid visa and travel documents required for entry into Georgia under this Law;

b) have aliens present for inspection at border checkpoints immediately upon arrival;

c) return aliens who have been refused entry into Georgia to the point of origin.

2. A carrier company shall be obliged to bear the costs of the return transportation of an alien and the expenses of his/her stay incurred before his/her return if an alien has been refused entry into Georgia because the inspection revealed the absence of the grounds and travel documents required by this Law for entering and/or staying in Georgia.

3. If upon inspection at a border checkpoint an alien has been refused entry into Georgia, except for the cases provided for in the second paragraph of this article, the state shall be obliged to bear the expenses of stay incurred before the return of an alien, while the carrier company shall cover the return transportation when the alien returns to the point of origin.

4. A carrier company that covered the expenses of the return transportation of an alien may request the alien to reimburse any expenses the company incurred due the alien's refusal of entry into Georgia.

5. If the carrier company fails to fulfil the obligations under this article (except for subparagraph (a) of this article), it shall be held liable under the procedure provided for by the administrative legislation of Georgia.

Chapter IV – Georgian Residence Permits

Article 14 – Body issuing Georgian residence permits and general conditions for issuing a residence permit

1. A Georgian residence permit shall be issued to an alien who stays in Georgia on a legitimate ground and meets the conditions defined by this Law. A Georgian residence permit shall be issued by the Agency.

1¹. For the purposes of issuing a Georgian residence permit, an asylum seeker shall not be deemed an individual lawfully staying in Georgia.

1². A Georgian residence permit shall not be issued to an alien who, at the time of filing an application for a Georgian residence permit, stays in Georgia on the ground of deferred obligation to leave Georgia.

1³. A Georgian residence permit (except for an investment residence permit, a special residence permit, and a temporary residence permit provided for by Article 15(i) and (l) of this Law) shall not be issued on the basis of an ordinary C category visa.

1⁴. A Georgian residence permit (except for an investment residence permit, a special residence permit, and a temporary residence permit provided for by Article 15(i) and (l) of this Law) shall not be issued to an alien who stays in Georgia under the procedure established by Article 10(3¹) of this Law.

2. An alien staying in Georgia on legitimate grounds, and holding any type of residence permit provided for in Article 15 of this Law may apply to the Agency for another type of residence permit if he/she meets the established requirements for the issuance of a respective residence permit.

Article 16 – The validity period of a residence permit

1. a) Georgian temporary residence permits provided for by Article 15(a-c) of this Law shall initially be issued for a term of 6 months to one year;

a¹) Georgian temporary residence permit provided for by Article 15(f) of this Law (except as provided for by subparagraph (d) of this paragraph) shall be issued for a term of one year for the first time;

b) a temporary residence permit provided for by Article 15(d) of this Law shall initially be issued for a term of 6 years;

c) a temporary residence permit provided for by Article 15(e) of this Law shall initially be issued for a term of 3 years;

d) a special residence permit provided for by Article 15(f) of this Law, if a member of the Government of Georgia submits a written initiative for issuing a Georgian temporary residence permit to an alien, shall initially be issued for a term of up to 5 years;

[d¹) a residence permit for a spouse of a citizen of Georgia provided for by subparagraph (g¹) shall be issued for the term of 1 year, which may be extended for 2 years each time, but not for more than 5 years in total. Upon expiration of 5 years, provided that the marriage is maintained, a permanent residence permit shall be issued in accordance with the procedure established by the legislation of Georgia; (Shall become effective from 1 September 2026)]

e) an investment residence permit provided for by Article 15(h) of this Law may be issued to an alien for a term of 5 years. An alien holding an investment residence permit shall, in the case of making an investment, during the period of his/her holding the investment residence permit, submit to the Agency, annually until the expiry of each year of the investment residence permit validity, information from the Legal Entity under Public Law – the Revenue Service on the annual turnover of the entrepreneurial activities he/she has carried out in Georgia. The validity of an investment residence permit shall be terminated if an alien has no proof of the annual turnover of at least USD 50 000 equivalent in GEL during the first year of the entrepreneurial activities he/she has carried out in Georgia; the annual turnover of at least USD 100 000 equivalent in GEL during the second year, and the turnover of at least USD 120 000 equivalent in GEL during the third, fourth and fifth years. A person holding an investment residence permit issued on the basis of having ownership of an immovable thing worth of more than USD 300 000 equivalent in GEL shall be obliged to maintain the property right to the immovable thing on the basis of having ownership of which the investment residence permit was issued, or to the immovable thing that has been used as a replacement under the condition provided for by Article 21(1³) of this Law;

f) a short-term residence permit provided for by Article 15(j) of this Law may be issued to an alien and its validity may be each time extended for one year. The validity of the aforementioned short-term residence permit shall be terminated if the alien's right of ownership of an appropriate real thing is terminated;

g) a permanent residence permit provided for by Article 15(g) of this Law and an unlimited residence permit provided for by Article 15(k) of this Law shall be issued with the right of permanent living;

h) a temporary residence permit provided for by Article 15(l) shall be issued for the term of 3 years for the first time.

2. In a special case, a temporary residence permit may initially be issued for a term of 5 years.

3. The validity period of temporary residence permits provided for by paragraph 1 (except for paragraphs 1(e) and (h)) and paragraph 2 of this article may be extended for up to not more than 12 years, for a presumed term of stay of an alien in Georgia, under the same conditions as applied for issuing the permit, the extension of the validity of which is requested by the alien. If an alien maintains the ownership right of a real thing on the basis of which a short-term residence permit provided for by Article 15(j) of this Law was issued, he/she shall be exempt from the obligation to submit a re-evaluation of the market value of the real thing.

paragraph 2 of this article may be extended for up to not more than 12 years, for a presumed term of stay of an alien in Georgia, under the same conditions as applied for issuing the permit, the extension of the validity of which is requested by the alien. If an alien maintains the ownership right of a real thing on the basis of which a short-term residence permit provided for by Article 15(j) of this Law was issued, he/she shall be exempt from the obligation to submit a re-evaluation of the market value of the real thing. (Shall become effective from 1 September 2026)]

3¹. The validity period of a temporary residence permit provided for by paragraph 1(h) of this article may be prolonged by 3 years at a time, up to not more than 12 years.

4. A residence permit with the right of permanent residence shall be granted to a stateless person whose citizenship of Georgia has been terminated by reason of renunciation of the citizenship of Georgia, or who has permanently lived in Georgia as of 31 March 1993, or who has not been considered a citizen of Georgia and has not been deregistered his/her permanent registration in Georgia after 31 March 1993.

5. For receiving an unlimited residence permit, an alien to whom an investment residence permit has been issued on the basis of his/her making an investment of USD 300 000 equivalent in GEL and who has been holding an investment residence permit for 5 years, must apply to the Agency before the 5-year validity period of the investment residence permit expires and must submit information to it on the turnover for the fifth year after the investment residence permit was issued to prove that the turnover in the fifth year after his/her carrying out entrepreneurial activities in Georgia amounts to at least USD 120 000 equivalent in GEL; and an alien to whom an investment residence permit has been issued on the basis of his/her having ownership of an immovable thing worth of USD 300 000 equivalent in GEL, shall, before the fifth year of the investment residence permit validity expires, apply to the Agency and submit a certificate from the Legal Entity under Public Law – the National Agency of Public Registry ('the Public Registry') concerning the immovable thing he/she has had ownership of during the 5 years cumulatively, on the basis of having ownership of which the investment residence permit was issued to him/her, or concerning his/her having ownership of an immovable thing that has been used as a replacement under the condition provided for by Article 21(1³) of this Law.

6. If an alien holding an investment residence permit applies to the Agency for an unlimited residence permit, he/she shall retain the investment residence permit until the Agency makes an appropriate decision.

[Article 16¹. Procedures for issuing a residence permit for the spouse of a citizen of Georgia and verifying the validity of marriage]

1. To review an application submitted to obtain a residence permit for the spouse of a citizen of Georgia provided for by Article 15(g¹) of this Law, an Interagency Commission (the Commission) shall be established, comprising representatives of the Ministry of Internal Affairs of Georgia, the State Security Service of Georgia, and the Agency.

2. To determine the validity of the marital bond and the formation of a family between the married individuals, the Commission shall be authorised to interview them both separately and jointly. The married individuals shall be obliged to provide explanations to the Commission, submit all possible evidence and documents confirming the validity of the marital bond, appear before the Commission upon its request, and, where required, grant the Commission the opportunity to verify the information indicated in the relevant documents, including by visiting and inspecting the place of residence, and interviewing relevant persons.

3. Failure of the persons determined by paragraph 2 of this article to comply with the request of the Commission, refusal to appear before the Commission, refusal to allow the inspection of the place of residence by the Commission, or any other manifestation of refusal to cooperate with it, shall constitute grounds for refusal to issue a residence permit to the spouse of a citizen of Georgia.

4. If the Commission considers that there are sufficient grounds for assuming that the marriage is a sham, it shall forward the relevant case materials to the investigative body according to the actual place of residence of the citizen of Georgia, and the copies of these materials – to the Prosecution Service of Georgia.

5. Upon commencement of an investigation in the case provided for by paragraph 4 of this article, the period for reviewing the application submitted to obtain a residence permit for the spouse of a citizen of Georgia shall be suspended until the initiation of criminal prosecution or the termination of the investigation.

6. The composition and rules of operation of the Commission provided for by this article, as well as the procedure for conducting interviews to determine the validity of the marital bond and the formation of a family, shall be determined by an ordinance of the Government of Georgia. (Shall become effective from 1 September 2026)

Article 17 – Considering and making a decision on the matter of granting a Georgian residence permit

1. To obtain a Georgian residence permit, an alien shall apply to the Agency in person or through an authorised representative.

2. To obtain a Georgian residence permit, an application for a minor shall be submitted by his/her legal representative. An application for a beneficiary of support may only be submitted through his/her supporter, unless otherwise determined under court decision; and an application for a person recognised as legally incompetent under the procedure established by the legislation of a respective country shall be submitted his/her legal representative, unless otherwise determined by the legislation of this country.

3. An application and accompanying documents for a Georgia residence permit may be submitted to the Agency electronically, according to the procedure established by the legislation of Georgia.

3¹. In order to make sure that there are grounds for issuing a Georgian residence permit, the Agency shall have the right to check information indicated in the documents by visiting the place indicated, inspecting the place and interviewing relevant persons.

[3¹. To verify the existence of grounds for issuing a Georgian residence permit, the Agency/Commission shall have the right to check the information indicated in the relevant documents by visiting the specified location, inspecting it, and interviewing relevant persons. (Shall become effective from 1 September 2026)]

4. When a special residence permit is issued based on the written initiative of a member of the Government of Georgia, grounds specified in Article 18 of this Law shall not be verified. Additional documents to be submitted by the interested person and the procedure for their submission shall be defined by an ordinance of the Government of Georgia.

5. An alien about who is reasonably assumed to a victim of or affected by the crime of human trafficking shall be granted a special residence permit (or the validity period of his/her permit shall be extended) at the request of an institution providing services to victims of human trafficking or a body handling the proceedings.

6. An application and accompanying documents for obtaining a Georgian residence permit shall be submitted to the Agency in the official language of Georgia. In the cases provided for by the legislation of Georgia, the Agency shall be authorised to accept an application in a language other than the official language as well. An alien's passport may be submitted to the Agency without a Georgian translation, provided it contains the alien's personal data in Latin transliteration.

6¹. The Agency shall issue a temporary residence permit to an alien who is a victim of violence against women and/or domestic violence and shall prolong such permit based on application of an institution providing services to victims of violence against women and domestic violence or the agency responsible for the proceedings.

7. The period for reviewing an application for obtaining a residence permit and for extending its validity period shall not exceed 30 days from the submission of all the required documents to the Agency.

[7. The period for reviewing an application to obtain a residence permit in Georgia and to extend the validity period of such permit shall be determined by an ordinance of the Government of Georgia. (Shall become effective from 1 September 2026)]

8. The Agency shall be obliged to notify an alien electronically of the outcome of considering the application, in accordance with the procedure provided for by the legislation of Georgia.

Chapter VII – Departure of Aliens from Georgia

Article 47 – General requirements for the departure of aliens from Georgia

1. Aliens may leave Georgia through border checkpoints open for cross-border movement, provided that they have a valid travel document and have or had a permit to stay in Georgia, unless otherwise provided for by the legislation of Georgia.
2. When leaving Georgia, aliens shall be inspected at border checkpoints; the inspection shall be carried out by an authorised body of the Ministry of Internal Affairs of Georgia (MIA).
3. Aliens shall be obliged to leave Georgia before the expiry of their lawful stay in Georgia.
4. Aliens, whose lawful stay in Georgia has expired, shall be obliged to pay the penalty established by the legislation of Georgia for unlawful stay in Georgia before or after leaving the country. The aliens who fail to pay the penalty shall be refused a visa and entry into Georgia until they pay the penalty.
5. If aliens leave Georgia within 30 calendar days after a relevant decision has been made by an authorised body, they shall not be charged with an administrative penalty, provided that:
 - a) their citizenship of Georgia has been terminated;
 - b) their application for the determination of the status of stateless persons, or for the granting of international protection has been refused;
 - c) their residence permit has been terminated on the grounds provided in Article 21(1)(b–d) of this Law;
 - d) their probation period has expired in case of a conditional sentence, or they served a sentence/punishment in case of deprivation of their liberty or administrative imprisonment.

Article 48 – Deferring the obligation to leave Georgia

1. An alien, who fails to fulfil the obligation of Article 47(3) of this Law, may have his/her obligation to leave Georgia deferred in the following cases:

- a) if he/she has applied to the Agency for a Georgian residence permit or granting him/her the citizenship of Georgia;
- b) if he/she is sick or pregnant, if, according to the doctor's opinion, further travel will pose a threat to his/her health. In that case, his/her family members and accompanying persons may stay with him/her;
- c) if proceedings are pending in Georgia's court of general jurisdiction with his/her participation and if his/her stay in Georgia is essential for protecting his/her interests;
- d) if he/she is involuntarily staying in Georgia for more than 10 days during his/her transit through Georgia; in that case, the following shall be regarded as involuntary stay:
 - d.a) natural phenomenon impeding the movement of trains, vehicles, ships, or airplanes;
 - d.b) necessary repairs of means of transport or a traffic accident;
 - d.c) delays in changing means of transport;
 - d.d) other cases where it is impossible to move from one place to another without impediment;
- e) on the basis of an application by a competent person of a ministry of Georgia or a state sub-agency.

2. The Agency shall make decision with regard to deferment of an alien's obligation to leave Georgia within 5 days after an appropriate application is submitted to it.

3. An alien shall apply to the Agency for deferring the obligation to leave Georgia on the ground defined by paragraph 1(c) of this article at least 14 calendar days before the period of his/her legitimate stay in Georgia expires.

4. The Agency shall, at its own initiative, consider the issue of having the obligation of an alien to leave Georgia deferred on the ground of applying to the Agency for a Georgian residence permit or for granting him/her the citizenship of Georgia. The aforementioned alien may have his/her obligation to leave Georgia deferred for as long as the Georgian residence permit is issued or for a period of administrative proceedings relating to the granting of the citizenship of Georgia.

5. In special circumstances, upon reasonable request, an alien's obligation to leave Georgia may be deferred once, up to three months, for the same purpose for which the permission to stay in Georgia was granted.

[5. In special circumstances, upon a reasonable request, an alien's obligation to leave Georgia may be deferred on a one-off basis for a period of up to 3 months, for the same purpose for which the permit to stay in Georgia was granted to him/her. In the case provided for by Article 16¹(4) of this Law, the alien's obligation to leave Georgia shall be deferred for 6 months, with the right to further extension of this period, until a final decision is made by the Agency, but not later than the initiation of criminal prosecution or the termination of the investigation against the alien. (Shall become effective from 1 September 2026)]

6. Application for deferring the obligation to leave Georgia and accompanying documents shall be submitted to the Agency in the same manner as prescribed for the submission of an application for a Georgian residence permit. If a foreign applicant is no longer interested in deferring the obligation to leave Georgia, he/she may, at any stage of administrative proceedings, apply to the Agency for the termination of proceedings. In the process of considering or deciding the issue, communication with the foreign applicant shall be carried out in the same manner as prescribed for communication with an interested party at the time of considering/deciding the issuance of a Georgian residence permit.

7. An alien shall not have deferred his/her obligation to leave Georgia as provided for by this article, if the proceedings on his/her expulsion from Georgia have commenced in accordance with the procedure established by this Law or the decision on his/her expulsion from Georgia has been made, including in the case of appealing the said decision to the court in accordance with the procedure established by the legislation of Georgia.

8. Appealing a decision made on granting/refusal to grant the right to labour activities shall not give rise to legal grounds for deferring the obligation to leave Georgia as provided for by this article.

9. Appealing a decision made by the Agency on the refusal to defer the obligation of an alien to leave Georgia on the basis of paragraph 7 of this article in accordance with the procedure established by the legislation of Georgia shall not impede the proceedings on expulsion of an alien from Georgia and/or the execution of the decision on expulsion of an alien from Georgia.

[9. Appealing a decision to the court made by the Agency on the refusal to defer the obligation of an alien to leave Georgia on the basis of paragraph 7 of this article in accordance with the procedure established by the legislation of Georgia shall not impede the proceedings on expulsion of an alien from Georgia and/or the execution of the decision on expulsion of an alien from Georgia. (Shall become effective from 1 September 2026)]

Chapter IX – The Procedure for Considering and Deciding the Expulsion of Aliens from Georgia

Article 51 – Expelling aliens from Georgia

1. An alien may be expelled from Georgia if:

- a) he/she has entered Georgia without a lawful basis;
- b) there are no lawful basis for his/her further stay in Georgia;
- c) there are sufficient grounds for assuming that he/she may pose threat to state security, public safety and/or legal order of Georgia;
- d) his/her expulsion is necessary for protecting the health, rights, and legitimate interests of citizens of Georgia and of other individuals lawfully staying in Georgia;
- e) he/she regularly breaches the legislation of Georgia;
- f) he/she has obtained legal grounds for entry or stay in Georgia through forged or invalid documents;
- g) he/she is serving a sentence in a penitentiary institution of Georgia for having committed a crime provided for by the Criminal Code of Georgia – immediately after he/she completes serving the sentence or he/she is released on any other ground;
- h) a non-custodial sentence has been imposed on him/her – before he/she completes serving the sentence, or if a court has imposed a conditional sentence on him/her – before the probation period expires;

[i) he/she carried out labour activities without the right to engage in labour activities. (Shall become effective from 1 September 2026)]

2. If there are administrative proceedings in progress to determine the status of stateless person for an alien, paragraphs 1(a) and (b) of this article shall not apply to him/her during the administrative proceedings. Furthermore, if administrative proceedings are in progress to extend Georgian visa for an alien, paragraph 1(b) of this article shall not apply to him/her during the administrative proceedings. Appealing, in accordance with the procedure established by the legislation of Georgia, the decision made on the basis of administrative proceedings as provided for by this paragraph shall not impede the proceedings on the expulsion of the alien from Georgia by the authorised body of the Ministry of Internal Affairs of Georgia and/or the execution of the decision made regarding the expulsion of the alien from Georgia

2¹. The proceedings on the expulsion of an alien from Georgia shall be suspended if he/she is the subject of the extradition procedure and/or criminal prosecution has been initiated against him/her in Georgia.

3. Any stateless person may be expelled from Georgia only in the circumstances prescribed by paragraph 1(c) of this article, as provided for by this Law.

[4. Where an alien is staying in Georgia without a lawful basis and, furthermore, has breached the condition provided for by paragraph 1(i) of this article, he/she may be expelled from Georgia on the ground determined by subparagraph (a) and/or subparagraph (b) of the same paragraph, in accordance with the procedure established by this Law. 1. An authorised body of the MIA shall make a decision regarding the expulsion of aliens from Georgia on the grounds laid down in Article 51(1)(a) and (b) of this Law; the court shall make a decision on the expulsion of aliens on the grounds laid down in Article 51(1)(c-h) of this Law.

2. The grounds for the commencement of court proceedings regarding the issue of expulsion of an alien from Georgia on any grounds determined in Article 51(1)(c-h) of this Law shall be a motion submitted to the court by an authorised body of the Ministry of Internal Affairs.

[1. An authorised body of the MIA shall make a decision on the expulsion of aliens from Georgia on the grounds determined by Article 51(1)(a) and (b) of this Law, whereas a decision on the expulsion of aliens on the grounds determined by subparagraphs (c)-(i) of the same paragraph shall be made by the court.

2. The grounds for the commencement of court proceedings regarding the issue of expulsion of an alien from Georgia on any grounds determined in Article 51(1)(c-i) of this Law shall be a motion submitted by an authorised body of the Ministry of Internal Affairs. (Shall become effective from 1 September 2026)]

3. State institutions shall provide an authorised body of the MIA with all available information on the grounds for the expulsion of aliens from Georgia.

3¹. To ensure the exercise of powers provided for by paragraph 1 of this article, an employer, including a state institution or a legal entity, shall be obliged to provide information regarding labour relations with an alien in accordance with the procedure established by the legislation of Georgia to the authorised body of the Ministry of Internal Affairs of Georgia in case of its request.

3². The authorised body of the Ministry of Internal Affairs of Georgia may request the information, in accordance with the procedure established by the legislation of Georgia, regarding labour migrants from the Ministry of Internally Displaced Persons from the Occupied Territories, Labour, Health and Social Affairs of Georgia.

4. An authorised body of the MIA of Georgia shall commence proceedings on expulsion of aliens from Georgia if any of the grounds for the alien's expulsion under Article 51(1)(a) and (b) of this Law have become known, and if the authorised body has substantiating evidence.

5. The authorised body of the Ministry of Internal Affairs of Georgia shall, upon the commencement of the proceedings on his/her expulsion from Georgia, explain in writing to an alien the right to apply for international protection to a state agency under the procedure established by the legislation of Georgia in the language that he/she understands, as deemed reasonable.

Article 53 – Procedure for making decisions on expelling aliens from Georgia

1. The court shall make a decision on expelling aliens from Georgia as prescribed by the legislation of Georgia.
2. An authorised body of the MIA shall consider the issue of expelling an alien from Georgia within 10 business days after detecting the grounds for expulsion and shall decide on one of the following in compliance with the legislation of Georgia:
 - a) expulsion of an alien from Georgia;
 - b) refusal to deport an alien from Georgia;
 - c) deferral of the expulsion of an alien.
3. The decision provided for by paragraph 2 of this article shall be delivered (in Georgian, as well as a translation in a language that he/she understands) to the alien in accordance with the procedure established by Article 56¹ of this Law. In that decision the information on legal grounds of his/her expulsion from Georgia, refusal of the expulsion from Georgia or deferral of the expulsion from Georgia shall be briefly indicated, as well as the procedure for appealing that decision. The above decision shall be translated in a language that the alien understands, as deemed reasonable.
4. When making a decision on expelling aliens from Georgia, the relevant decision-making body shall take into account:
 - a) the duration of an alien's lawful residence in Georgia, his/her personal, social, economic and other ties with Georgia;
 - b) the principle of family unity, implications for an alien's family or for individuals permanently residing with him/her.
 - c) an alien's social, economic and other links with the receiving country.
5. To determine essential factual circumstances during the ongoing administrative proceedings on the expulsion of an alien from Georgia, an interview shall be conducted with the alien. The date of the interview shall be notified to the alien 2 working days prior, in accordance with the procedure established by Article 56¹ of this Law. The time of the interview may be notified to him/her additionally via telephone, regarding which a protocol on telephone conversation shall be prepared.
6. To ensure the accuracy of the materials of an interview with an alien, the interview shall be documented in writing and kept in the personal file of the alien in accordance with the procedure established by the Law of Georgia on Personal Data Protection.
7. The procedure for administrative proceedings on the expulsion of an alien from Georgia shall be established by the Ministry of Internal Affairs of Georgia.

Article 53¹ – Detection of aliens staying in Georgia without a lawful basis

1. The authorised body of the Ministry of Internal Affairs of Georgia shall be authorised, within its competence, to carry out measures provided for by the Law of Georgia on the Police for the purpose of combating, preventing, identifying and suppressing illegal migration.
2. The authorised body of the Ministry of Internal Affairs of Georgia shall be authorised to inspect public places, including cafés, restaurants, fast food restaurants, any form of public transport, hotels or other sites in public spaces for the purpose of detecting, in accordance with the legislation of Georgia, an alien staying in Georgia without a lawful basis.

Law of Georgia No 863 of 26 June 2025 – website, 1.7.2025

Article 53² – Taking a photograph, fingerprints and palmprints of an alien staying in Georgia without a lawful basis

1. The authorised body of the Ministry of Internal Affairs of Georgia or the relevant territorial body of the police shall take a photograph, as well as fingerprints and palmprints, of an alien staying in Georgia without a lawful basis or an alien in respect of whom the examination of an issue of expulsion from Georgia on the grounds provided for by Article 51(1)(c-h) of this Law has commenced. Taking a photograph, fingerprints and palmprints of an alien under the age of 14 shall be permissible if his/her identification or verification of identity is otherwise impossible. When taking a photograph, fingerprints and palm prints of an alien under the age of 14, his/her rights and best interests shall be taken into account.

[1. The authorised body of the Ministry of Internal Affairs of Georgia or the relevant territorial body of the police shall take a photograph, as well as fingerprints and palmprints, of an alien staying in Georgia without a lawful basis or an alien in respect of whom the examination of an issue of expulsion from Georgia on any of the grounds provided for by Article 51(1)(c-i) of this Law has commenced. It shall be permitted to take a photograph of an alien under the age of 14, take his/her fingerprints and palm prints if his/her identification or verification of identity cannot be conducted otherwise. When taking a photograph, fingerprints and palm prints of an alien under the age of 14, his/her rights and best interests shall be taken into account. (Shall become effective from 1 September 2026)]

2. If an alien refuses to have his/her photograph, fingerprints and palm prints taken, these personal data can be obtained by applying proportional coercive measures.
3. A photograph, fingerprints and palm prints of an alien shall be kept in the relevant database of the Ministry of Internal Affairs of Georgia. These personal data shall be processed in accordance with the Law of Georgia on Personal Data Protection.
4. The procedure for taking a photograph, fingerprints and palm prints, as well as for processing these personal data shall be established by the Minister of Internal Affairs of Georgia.

Article 53³ – Inspecting the place of residence/work or other private property/possessions of an alien to identify illegal migration

1. The authorised body of the Ministry of Internal Affairs of Georgia shall have the right to inspect the place of residence/work or other private property/possessions of an alien for the purpose of identification of an alien staying in Georgia without a lawful basis and/or the inspection of the place of residence/work of an alien or searching for his/her travel document on the basis of an order of a judge of a district (city) court. Consent of a co-owner of a private property or an employer at a place of work shall be sufficient for carrying out the inspection without an order of a judge of a district (city) court.

2. If there is an urgent necessity of conducting inspection and delay might cause absconding by an alien or the destruction or concealment of his/her travel document, the authorised body of the Ministry of Internal Affairs of Georgia shall have the right to commence inspection of a place of residence/work or other private property/possessions of an alien and submit the relevant petition to a judge of a district (city) court within 24 hours. Upon the submittal of that petition, the authorised body of the Ministry of Internal Affairs of Georgia shall substantiate the urgent necessity of conducting inspection.

3. During the inspection of a place of residence and/or work of an alien, the authorised body of the Ministry of Internal Affairs of Georgia shall have the right to interview, identify, superficially assess and examine him/her, and in the cases provided for by the legislation of Georgia, carry out other preventive and coercive measures as well.

4. During the inspection of a place work of an alien, the authorised body of the Ministry of Internal Affairs of Georgia may request from an employer to allow the authorised body to examine the documents certifying legal grounds for alien's work in Georgia.

Law of Georgia No 930 of 2 July 2025 – website, 8.7.2025

Article 54 – Leaving Georgia voluntarily by an alien under a decision on expulsion

1. During the proceedings on the expulsion of an alien from Georgia, an alien residing in Georgia shall be given, upon his/her request and taking into consideration the circumstances of the specific case, a reasonable period of 7 to 30 calendar days for leaving Georgia voluntarily under the decision on his/her expulsion from Georgia, during which he/she shall be obliged to leave Georgia without any expenses incurred by the State Budget of Georgia.

2. During the proceedings on the expulsion of an alien from Georgia, on the stage of interview with the alien, an authorised body of the Ministry of Internal Affairs of Georgia shall explain to the alien in writing and in the language he/she understands, as deemed reasonable, his/her right to use the period determined for leaving the country voluntarily to leave Georgia.

3. To avoid the risk of absconding by an alien, he/she might be imposed the following obligations within the period determined for leaving Georgia voluntarily:

a) appear at an authorised body of the Ministry of Internal Affairs of Georgia or a relevant territorial body of the police not more than twice a week;

b) deposit a minimum bail of at least GEL 3,000;

c) hand over a travel document to the authorised body of the Ministry of Internal Affairs of Georgia;

d) not change the address of his/her place of residence and other contact information which he/she indicated during the proceedings on the expulsion from Georgia without immediately informing thereof the authorised body of the Ministry of Internal Affairs of Georgia;

e) in the case of his/her absence from the relevant place of residence for more than 2 days, inform the authorised body of the Ministry of Internal Affairs of Georgia thereof;

f) appear at the authorised body of the Ministry of Internal Affairs of Georgia to clarify the circumstances of ensuring the execution of the decision on his/her expulsion from Georgia and/or for consultation.

4. According to the decision of an authorised body, an alien might be imposed more than one obligation determined by paragraph 3 of this article.

5. In the case provided for by paragraph 3(c) of this article, an alien shall be issued a certificate of surrender of his/her travel document to the authorised body of the Ministry of Internal Affairs of Georgia.

[5. When the issue of expulsion of an alien from Georgia is being reviewed, the alien shall, upon request of the authorised body of the Ministry of Internal Affairs of Georgia, surrender their travel document to it. The alien shall be issued a certificate of surrender of his/her travel document to the authorised body of the Ministry of Internal Affairs of Georgia. (Shall become effective from 1 September 2026)]

6. If there are sufficient grounds for assuming that an alien has concealed a travel document, an authorised body of the Ministry of Internal Affairs of Georgia and/or a relevant territorial body of the police shall have a right to search, with the written consent of a co-owner or a joint-tenant of the place of residence of the alien, the above place of residence for the purpose of finding the travel document.

7. In the case of imposing an obligation provided for by paragraph 3(d) of this article on an alien, an authorised body of the Ministry of Internal Affairs of Georgia and/or a relevant territorial body of the police shall have a right to verify, with the written consent of a co-owner or a joint-tenant of the place of residence, whether or not the alien lives in the place of residence indicated by him/her.

8. In cases provided for by paragraphs (7) and (8) of this article, the refusal of an alien to searching of a place of residence by an authorised body of the Ministry of Internal Affairs of Georgia and/or a relevant territorial body of the police for the purpose of finding a travel document of the alien shall be the failure to fulfil (violation) of an obligation provided for by Article 51¹ of this Law.

9. A time frame for leaving Georgia voluntarily might not be determined for an alien or might be determined in a term of less than 7 days if:

a) there is a risk of absconding by the alien;

b) his/her expulsion from Georgia is carried out on the basis of Article 51(1)(c) of this Law;

c) he/she has been refused the issuance of Georgian residence permit or the granting of international protection on the grounds that his application for international protection is ill-founded;

d) in the course of proceedings concerning the issuance of residence permit or granting of international protection, he/she submitted false information or forged documents regarding significant circumstances;

e) a decision on expulsion of an alien from Georgia has been made in relation to the alien who has been detained due to illegal crossing of the state border of Georgia and who had not obtained the permit to stay in Georgia or the right to temporary stay in Georgia;

[e) the issue of expulsion of an alien from Georgia who has crossed the state border of Georgia unlawfully and is staying in Georgia without a lawful basis is being reviewed; (Shall become effective from 1 September 2026)]

f) his/her expulsion from Georgia is conducted on the basis of Article 51(1)(g) of this Law;

g) after the commencement of the proceedings on his/her expulsion from Georgia, he/she requested international protection once again and/or applied to the Agency to defer the obligation to leave Georgia;

h) he/she fails to cooperate with an authorised body of the Ministry of Internal Affairs of Georgia as determined by Article 51¹ of this Law.

10. The time frame for leaving Georgia voluntarily determined by a decision on expulsion of an alien from Georgia may be reduced and/or a decision on the expulsion of an alien from Georgia may be executed before the expiry of that time frame, if:

a) there is a risk of absconding by the alien;

b) after making a decision on expulsion of an alien from Georgia:

b.a) there are sufficient grounds for assuming that the alien may pose threat to the state security, public safety and/or legal order of Georgia;

b.b) the alien requested international protection once again and/or applied to the Agency to defer the obligation to leave Georgia;

b.c) the alien fails to cooperate with an authorised body of the Ministry of Internal Affairs of Georgia as determined by Article 51¹ of this Law.

11. Together with the decision on expulsion of an alien from Georgia, a decision on the reduction of time frame determined for leaving Georgia voluntarily shall also be appealed, as well as a decision on defining a time frame for banning re-entry of the alien into Georgia determined under the decision on his/her expulsion from Georgia.

[11. The decision made by an authorised body on the basis of paragraph 10 of this article shall be appealed together with the decision on expulsion of an alien from Georgia. (Shall become effective from 1 September 2026)]

12. If an alien refuses to leave Georgia voluntarily, the bail provided for by paragraph 3(b) of this article shall be used for remuneration of expenses related to his/her expulsion from Georgia.

13. In the case of leaving Georgia voluntarily as provided for by paragraph 1 of this article, the alien shall not be released from an obligation to pay administrative fine imposed for the violation of rules of stay in Georgia.

14. When expelling an alien from Georgia on any basis provided for by Article 51(1)(c-h) of this Law, he/she shall submit a relevant evidence to the authorised body of the Ministry of Internal Affairs of Georgia or the court to confirm his/her voluntary departure from Georgia.

[14. When expelling an alien from Georgia on any basis provided for by Article 51(1)(c-i) of this Law, he/she shall submit a relevant evidence to the authorised body of the Ministry of Internal Affairs of Georgia or the court to confirm their voluntary departure from Georgia. (Shall become effective from 1 September 2026)]

- e) he/she has repeatedly committed intentional offence or has committed an offence for which a sentence of imprisonment was imposed;
- f) he/she has failed to comply with the obligation imposed on him/her under Article 54(3) of this Law;
- g) during the interview with an authorised body of the Ministry of Internal Affairs of Georgia, he/she indicates that he/she does not intend to comply with the obligation to leave Georgia, or the authorised body of the Ministry of Internal Affairs of Georgia concludes, taking into account his/her identity and conduct, that the alien will fail to comply with the said obligation;
- h) he/she entered Georgia at a time when he/she was prohibited from entering Georgia;
- i) he/she was detained for unlawfully crossing the state border of Georgia and has not obtained a permit to stay in Georgia or received the right to temporary stay in Georgia;
- j) during the proceedings on his/her expulsion from Georgia, he/she abandoned his/her place of residence without immediately notifying the authorised body of the Ministry of Internal Affairs of Georgia;
- k) he/she fails to appear before the authorised body of the Ministry of Internal Affairs of Georgia during the course of administrative proceedings concerning him/her;
- l) based on documentation and/or information obtained during the stage of administrative proceedings, there are sufficient grounds to assume that he/she may abscond;
- m) he/she does not have a permanent or temporary place of residence in Georgia, or he/she fails to provide, or incorrectly state, information regarding his/her permanent or temporary place of residence or other contact information to the authorised person of the Migration Department of the Ministry of Internal Affairs of Georgia.

[Article 54¹ – Risk of absconding by an alien

A risk of absconding by an alien exists, if:

- a) he/she has failed to leave Georgia within the time limit determined for voluntary departure from Georgia;
- b) he/she has submitted false documents or false information when applying for a legal basis to stay in Georgia, an extension of the period of stay in Georgia, the granting of the citizenship of Georgia, requesting international protection or an identity document;
- c) there are sufficient grounds to assume that he/she has destroyed or concealed his/her travel documents;
- d) there is a reasonable doubt as to his/her true identity or citizenship;
- e) he/she has repeatedly committed intentional offence or has committed an offence for which a sentence of imprisonment was imposed;
- f) he/she has failed to comply with the obligation imposed on him/her under Article 54(3) of this Law;
- g) during the interview with an authorised body of the Ministry of Internal Affairs of Georgia, he/she indicates that he/she does not intend to comply with the obligation to leave Georgia, or the authorised body of the Ministry of Internal Affairs of Georgia, taking into account his/her identity and conduct, concludes that the alien will fail to comply with the said obligation;
- h) he/she entered Georgia at a time when he/she was prohibited from entering Georgia;
- i) he/she unlawfully crossed the state border of Georgia and is staying in Georgia without a lawful basis;
- j) during the proceedings on his/her expulsion from Georgia, he/she abandoned his/her place of residence without immediately notifying the authorised body of the Ministry of Internal Affairs of Georgia;
- k) he/she fails to appear before the authorised body of the Ministry of Internal Affairs of Georgia during the course of administrative proceedings concerning him/her;
- l) based on documentation and/or information obtained during the stage of administrative proceedings, there are sufficient grounds to assume that he/she may abscond;
- m) he/she does not have a permanent or temporary place of residence in Georgia, or he/she fails to provide, or incorrectly state, information regarding his/her permanent or temporary place of residence or other contact information to the authorised body of the Ministry of Internal Affairs of Georgia;
- n) after the proceedings on his/her expulsion from Georgia have commenced or a decision on his/her expulsion from Georgia has been made, he/she repeatedly requested international protection and/or applied to the Agency for a deferral of the obligation to leave Georgia;
- o) he/she has failed to comply with the obligation to leave Georgia as determined by Article 47¹ of this Law. (Shall become effective from 1 September 2026)

Article 55 – Deferring the expulsion of aliens from Georgia

1. An alien's expulsion from Georgia may be deferred for up to a 30 days:

- a) in case of force-majeure;

- b) if his/her physical and mental health has deteriorated;
- c) if he/she is a disabled person and is left unaccompanied;
- d) if an alien is pregnant, if under a doctor's opinion, further travel would endanger the person's health;
- e) if the recipient country delays the provision of documents required for the expulsion of an alien;
- f) if there is a danger that a minor may be left unaccompanied and/or his/her education may be interrupted.

2. If the relevant circumstance under paragraph 1 of this article remains unchanged, a person's expulsion from Georgia may be deferred only once, for a period of 30 days.

3. The decision on deferring the expulsion of aliens from Georgia shall be made by the relevant body authorised to decide on the expulsion of aliens from Georgia.

4. An alien's expulsion from Georgia shall not be deferred in the circumstances provided for in paragraph 1(e) of this article if the receiving State recognises the standard travel document of Georgia that is used for the expulsion.

Article 56¹ – The procedure for the communication with an alien and serving the decision of the Ministry of Internal Affairs of Georgia to him/her

1. The communication with an alien shall be carried out by posting a relevant notification on the website of the Ministry of Internal Affairs of Georgia (website). Any notification and/or decision made by an authorised body of the Ministry of Internal Affairs on the basis of this Law shall be considered served on a day following the day of posting that notification and/or decision on the website. Information on posting the above notification and/or decision on the website shall be sent to the alien in the form of a short text message in the language that he/she understands, as deemed reasonable.

2. An alien shall be obliged to:

a) keep the username and password provided to him/her;

b) in the case of losing username and/or password or inability to access the website, immediately apply to the Ministry of Internal Affairs of Georgia to recover the username and/or password;

c) after receiving information in the form of a short text message on posting a notification and/or decision on the website, familiarise with that notification and/or decision using the username and password.

3. A notification and/or decision shall be personally served to an alien placed in a temporary accommodation centre, which he/she shall confirm by a signature. In the case of refusal of an alien to sign, the notification and/or decision shall be considered served.

4. In the case an alien leaves Georgia during the period of examination of the issue of his/her expulsion from Georgia, a relevant decision provided for by Article 53(2) of this Law shall, in addition to being published on the website, be sent to an alien at an email address provided by him/her (if any). The said decision shall enter into force on the 15th day following its publication on the website.

[3. A relevant notification and/or decision shall be personally served to an alien placed in a temporary detention facility or a temporary accommodation centre, which he/she shall confirm by a signature. In the case of refusal of an alien to sign, the notification and/or decision shall be considered served.

4. In the case an alien leaves Georgia, a decision made on the basis of this Law by an authorised body of the Ministry of Internal Affairs of Georgia shall be published on the website and also sent to the alien at the email address provided by him/her (if any). That decision shall enter into force on the 15th day following its publication on the website.

4¹. Where an alien fails to comply with an obligation provided for by Article 51¹(1)(e) or (f) of this Law, the authorised body of the Ministry of Internal Affairs of Georgia shall publicly publish the decision made on the basis of this Law on the website. This decision shall enter into force on the 15th day following its public publication. (Shall become effective from 1 September 2026)]

5. The procedure for posting a notification and a decision provided for by paragraph 1 of this article shall be established by the Minister of Internal Affairs of Georgia.

Article 57¹ – Expulsion from Georgia of an alien on whom the expulsion from Georgia and prohibition from entry into Georgia has been imposed as punishment

1. If the expulsion of an alien from Georgia and prohibition from entry into Georgia is imposed on an alien as punishment for committing a crime provided for by Criminal Code of Georgia, the said punishment may be enforced:

a) immediately after the alien has served the fixed-term imprisonment imposed as a sentence, or upon his/her release on any other grounds if he/she has been serving the sentence in a penitentiary institution of Georgia for committing a crime provided for by Criminal Code of Georgia;

b) before the alien serves the sentence if non-custodial sentence has been imposed on him/her;

c) before the probation period expires if a conditional sentence has been imposed on the alien by the court.

2. The enforcement of the expulsion of an alien from Georgia and prohibition from entry into Georgia shall be ensured by an authorised body of the Ministry of Internal Affairs of Georgia. To this end, the court that has made the decision shall forward the writ of enforcement of the judgement, along with a copy of the judgment, to the authorised body of the Ministry of Internal Affairs of Georgia under the procedure established by the Criminal Procedure Code of Georgia.

3. For the enforcement of the expulsion of an alien from Georgia and prohibition from entry into Georgia, the alien may be placed in a temporary detention facility or a temporary accommodation centre, under the procedure established by Article 64 of this Law.

4. If the expulsion of an alien from Georgia and prohibition from entry into Georgia has been imposed on an alien as punishment, an authorised body of the Ministry of Internal Affairs of Georgia shall, for ensuring the enforcement of his/her expulsion from Georgia, initiate the related procedure 3 months before the alien serves the sentence or before he/she is released on any other grounds, if the said information is available.

5. If the information provided for by paragraph 4 of this article is not available, an authorised body of the Ministry of Internal Affairs of Georgia shall, for ensuring the enforcement of the alien's expulsion from Georgia and prohibition from entry into Georgia, initiate the related procedure immediately after it receives the appropriate information from the penitentiary institution.

6. In enforcing the expulsion of an alien from Georgia and prohibition from entry into Georgia, an authorised body of the Ministry of Internal Affairs of Georgia shall apply the procedures established by this Law and by the order of the Minister of Internal Affairs of Georgia.

Article 57³ – Expulsion from Georgia of a convicted alien whose unserved part of the imposed sentence has been commuted to expulsion from Georgia and a ban on entry into Georgia

1. Where a convicted alien, who has been sentenced to fixed-term imprisonment for committing an offence provided for by the Criminal Code of Georgia, has had the unserved part of his/her sentence commuted, during the serving of the sentence, to expulsion from Georgia and a ban on entry into Georgia by a decision of the local board of the Special Penitentiary Service, a state subordinate agency within the system of the Ministry of Justice of Georgia, the said sentence may be enforced immediately upon their release from the penitentiary institution on the basis of the decision on the commutation of the sentence.

2. The enforcement of the expulsion of an alien from Georgia and the ban on entry into Georgia shall be ensured by the authorised body of the Ministry of Internal Affairs of Georgia. For this purpose, the penitentiary institution shall notify the authorised body of the Ministry of Internal Affairs of Georgia of the release from the penitentiary institution of the convicted alien whose unserved part of the imposed sentence has been commuted to expulsion from Georgia and a ban on entry into Georgia.

3. For the purpose of enforcing the expulsion of an alien from Georgia and the ban on entry into Georgia, the alien may, in accordance with the procedure established by Article 64 of this Law, be placed in a temporary detention facility or a temporary accommodation centre.

4. Where the unserved part of the imposed sentence of an alien has been commuted to expulsion from Georgia and a ban on entry into Georgia, the authorised body of the Ministry of Internal Affairs of Georgia shall initiate the relevant procedure to ensure the enforcement of his/her expulsion from Georgia immediately upon receipt of the appropriate information from the penitentiary institution.

5. When enforcing the expulsion of an alien from Georgia and the ban on entry into Georgia, the authorised body of the Ministry of Internal Affairs of Georgia shall apply the procedures established by this Law and by the order of the Minister of Internal Affairs of Georgia.

Article 60 – Right of an alien to temporary stay in Georgia

1. A decision on granting an alien the right of temporary stay in Georgia and a decision on extending the time frame of his/her temporary stay in Georgia shall be made by an authorised body of the Ministry of Internal Affairs of Georgia.
2. The right of temporary stay shall be granted to an alien if there are one of the following circumstances impeding his/her expulsion from Georgia:
 - a) he/she cannot be expelled from Georgia under any grounds provided for by Articles 59(2) and (3) of this Law;
 - b) the relevant circumstances provided for by Article 55(1) of this Law have not changed after the expiry of the term set out in paragraph 2 of that article;
 - c) he/she cannot be identified;
 - d) no state agrees to accept him/her;
 - e) other circumstances provided for by Article 61 of this Law exist.
3. A document certifying the right of temporary stay in Georgia determined by paragraphs 1 and 2 of this article – a temporary identity card – shall be issued to an alien by the Agency on the basis of an application of the Ministry of Internal Affairs of Georgia.
4. If the relevant grounds determined by paragraph 2 of this article are eliminated, the Agency shall revoke the temporary identity card on the basis of an application of the Ministry of Internal Affairs of Georgia.
5. An alien shall be granted the right of temporary stay in Georgia for one year and he/she shall be issued a temporary identity card for the same period. That period may be extended for the term of one year by the decision of an authorised body of the Ministry of Internal Affairs of Georgia if the circumstances under which the alien was granted the right of temporary stay in Georgia still exist.
6. During the temporary stay of an alien in Georgia, an authorised body of the Ministry of Internal Affairs of Georgia shall, as a rule, study the circumstances determined by paragraph 2 of this article. If the circumstances impeding the expulsion of an alien from Georgia are eliminated during the period, he/she enjoys the right of temporary stay in Georgia, the right of temporary stay of an alien in Georgia shall be revoked and the relevant procedure for his/her expulsion from Georgia shall be commenced.
7. The right of a temporary stay in Georgia shall be revoked as well, if it comes to light that an alien does not comply with the requirements provided for by paragraph 2 of this article and/or he/she has provided incorrect information and/or false documentation, in particular:
 - a) he/she incorrectly presented and/or concealed essential factual circumstances;
 - b) new circumstances have appeared which indicate that he/she should not have been granted the right of temporary stay in Georgia;
 - c) the right of residence has been issued to him/her by an authorised body of another state.
8. Aliens may apply to the Agency for a special residence permit after five years of receiving a temporary identity card. A special residence permit shall be issued to an alien for one year. This term may be extended once a year, on the basis of an application of an authorised body of the Ministry of Internal Affairs of Georgia.
9. If in the case provided for by paragraph 8 of this article, an Agency refuses to issue a special residence permit to an alien and any of the circumstances determined by paragraph 2 of this article still exist, the right of temporary stay in Georgia shall be extended to the alien by the decision of an authorised body of the Ministry of Internal Affairs of Georgia.
10. Aliens who have received temporary identity card shall enjoy the rights and freedoms provided for by Articles 25, 29, 30, 33, 37 and 41 of this Law, as well as non-property rights under the legislation of Georgia.

Article 61 – Prohibition of expulsion

1. The following individuals may not be expelled from Georgia:

a) an alien under custody or guardianship of a citizen of Georgia;

b) an alien reasonably assumed to be a victim of, or affected by, the crime of trafficking, – during the period of reflection prescribed by the Law of Georgia on Combating Human Trafficking;

b¹) an alien who is a victim of violence against women and/or domestic violence – until the relevant proceedings are ended and/or during the period of staying at a place for temporary accommodation of domestic violence victims (shelters) under the Law of Georgia on Elimination of Violence against Women and/or Domestic Violence, Protection and Support of Victims of Domestic Violence;

c) an alien who has been given a conditional sentence or a non-custodial sentence, except where there is a court decision on expulsion;

[c) an alien who has been given a conditional sentence or a non-custodial sentence, except for a decision on the expulsion of an alien from Georgia made by a court, or the expulsion of an alien from Georgia determined as an administrative penalty or as a sentence; (Shall become effective from 1 September 2026)]

d) other persons as prescribed by the legislation of Georgia.

2. Individuals referred to in paragraph 1 of this article may be expelled only if they are a danger to state security and public order of Georgia.

- d) if there are sufficient grounds to assume that he/she might pose threat to state security, public safety and/or legal order of Georgia;
- e) if he/she endangers his/her own life and health;
- f) to ensure the enforcement of a decision on his/her expulsion from Georgia;
- g) to ensure bringing him/her before the court;
- h) if he/she does not cooperate with the authorised body of the Ministry of Internal Affairs of Georgia as provided for by Article 51¹ of this Law;
- i) if he/she does not have documents required for return or such documents cannot be obtained on time from a country determined by Article 59(1) of this Law or a country of transit or he/she refuses to cooperate and/or does not cooperate with an authorised body of the Ministry of Internal Affairs of Georgia in carrying out procedures necessary for obtaining documents from a country determined by Article 59(1) of this Law which are required for return;

j) as a punishment or an administrative sanction for executing expulsion of an alien from Georgia;

k) considering Article 51(1)(g) of this Law, if he/she committed a serious or particularly serious crime in Georgia;

[k) taking into account Article 51(1)(g) of this Law, if he/she committed a criminal offence in Georgia;

l) if he/she carried out labour activities in Georgia without the right to labour activities; (Shall become effective from 1 September 2026)]

m) for the purpose of enforcing the expulsion of an alien from Georgia and the ban on entry into Georgia, to which the unserved part of his/her sentence was commuted.

3. Within not later than 48 hours after detention, an alien shall be brought before the court for making a decision on his/her transfer to a temporary accommodation centre. Unless the court makes the decision within the next 24 hours on placing the alien in a temporary accommodation centre, he/she shall immediately be released.

4. If there is one of the grounds provided for by paragraph 2 of this article, a detained alien may be placed in the temporary accommodation centre either before or after the decision on his/her expulsion from Georgia is made.

5. A detained alien may be placed in the temporary accommodation centre for 3 months. If there are any of the grounds provided for by paragraph 2 of this article, the term of placing the alien in the temporary accommodation centre may be extended by a further six months on the basis of a reasoned motion submitted to the court by an authorised body of the Ministry of Internal Affairs of Georgia. Total term of stay of an alien in the temporary accommodation centre shall not exceed 9 months. After the expiry of that term, the alien shall leave the temporary accommodation centre.

6. An unaccompanied minor or a family may be placed in a temporary accommodation centre only as a last resort, for a shortest term possible, acting in his/her best interests.

7. Upon detention, an alien shall be informed in the language and in the manner he/she understands, as deemed reasonable, of:

a) the grounds for detention;

b) the right to attorney;

c) the right to notify any desired person/close relative of his/her detention;

d) the right to apply to a diplomatic mission/consular office;

e) the right to request medical examination;

f) the right to appeal his/her detention.

8. A detained alien shall be allowed to immediately notify the desired/close person of his/her detention by using the resource of an authorised body of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Georgia. The Ministry of Internal Affairs of Georgia and the consular office of the relevant state shall be notified of the detention of an alien immediately.

[8. A detained alien shall be allowed to immediately notify the desired/close person of his/her detention by using the resource of an authorised body of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Georgia. The Ministry of Internal Affairs of Georgia and the consular office of the relevant state shall be notified of the detention of an alien immediately, and not later than 24 hours. (Shall become effective from 1 September 2026)]

9. If a detained alien is a minor or a helpless person, the obligation of notification of his/her detention shall rest on the authorised body of the Ministry of Internal Affairs of Georgia. Detention of a minor alien shall be notified to his/her legal representative.

10. When placing a detained alien in a temporary accommodation centre, his/her travel document and identification document shall be kept at that temporary accommodation centre.

11. Releasing an alien from a temporary accommodation centre shall not produce grounds for his/her lawful stay in Georgia.

12. The Minister of Internal Affairs of Georgia shall determine the procedure for detaining and transferring aliens to a temporary accommodation centre.

Article 64² – Placement of an alien in a temporary accommodation centre

1. Immediately after an alien is placed in a temporary accommodation centre:

a) an authorised person the Ministry of Internal Affairs of Georgia shall forward to the temporary accommodation centre information about the alien to be expelled from Georgia, and documents, including his/her travel document and identification document;

b) personal belongings of an alien shall be inspected, and his/her pat-down search shall be performed under the procedure for arresting and placing an alien in a temporary accommodation centre. The alien shall be deprived of all the items keeping of which is not permitted within the territory of the temporary accommodation centre. An authorised body of the Ministry of Internal Affairs of Georgia shall have the right to apply a proportional coercive measure;

c) he/she shall undergo medical examination;

d) his/her photograph shall be taken, his/her fingerprints and palm prints shall be taken.

2. When placing an alien to be expelled from Georgia in a temporary accommodation centre, his/her personal file shall be opened, which includes the documents and information that were the basis for arresting and placing the alien in the temporary accommodation centre, the information and documents provided for by paragraph 1 of this article, and other documents and information provided for by the internal regulations of the temporary accommodation centre.

3. The rights and duties of the alien placed in a temporary accommodation centre shall be explained to him/her in a language he/she comprehends or in a language he/she understands, as it may be considered reasonable.

Article 64³ – Conditions of placement of an alien in a temporary accommodation centre

1. An alien, when he/she is placed in a temporary accommodation centre, and a person placed in a temporary accommodation centre, may be subject to search for detection of prohibited items. Their personal belongings may also be inspected under the procedure established by an order of the Minister of Internal Affairs of Georgia. A proportional coercive measure may be applied for this purpose.
2. An alien placed in a temporary accommodation centre shall:
 - a) obey the rules for staying/of conduct in a temporary accommodation centre established by the legislation of Georgia;
 - b) not pose a threat to another alien or another person placed in the temporary accommodation centre, and to the safety of the temporary accommodation centre;
 - c) not purposefully cause harm to his/her and another person's health, or damage to the property of the temporary accommodation centre.
3. If an alien fails to fulfil (violates) any of the obligations provided for by paragraph 2 of this article, the safety measures defined by an order of the Minister of Internal Affairs of Georgia may be applied to him/her.
